Workshop Schedule Session Overview

Session 1 : 9:00-10:30am : 1.5 hours

- Growth mindset versus fixed mindset – How to develop more resilience in our students
- Closing the feedback loop - Using peer and self-feedback to improve writing skills

Morning tea : 10:30-11am

Session 2 : 11:00am -1:00pm : 2 hours

- Soft CLIL : What is it? What does it look like in a primary and secondary context?
- How can I dabble in CLIL without committing to it every day?

Lunch : 1-2pm

Session 3 : 2:00-3:30pm : 1.5 hours

- Differentiation – Acknowledging that teachers and students need to accommodate their own strengths, weaknesses and learning preferences
- PERMA in language teaching – How can we teach hope? How can we develop it in ourselves and our staff?

Completing this course will contribute 5 hours of NESA Registered PD addressing standard descriptors 1.5.2, 2.1.2 and 6.2.2 from the Australian Professional Standards for Teachers towards maintaining Proficient Teacher Accreditation in NSW.

Presenters:

Junko Nichols has taught Japanese and English as a Foreign Language at pre-primary, primary, secondary and tertiary levels in Japan, China, England and Australia over the past 20 years. She has taught at a Japanese immersion program at Central Queensland University and has been involved in language teaching and language teacher training at a variety of schools, using a range of methodologies and approaches. She has many fabulous ideas for primary teachers including how to use "soft-CLIL" in a variety of topics such as poetry and art.

Liberty is the Catholic Education Commission's representative on the NSW Languages advisory Panel, the Project officer for Languages in the Broken Bay diocese and the author of the Jblog textbook series. She is passionate about supporting Japanese teachers and students with research-based resources and practical teaching strategies. Liberty has spoken at various conferences for the MLTANSW, JTAN, JLTAV, DETNSW and at the National Symposium for Japanese Teaching in 2016.
